

2nd Annual Arts in Education Exhibition

The HEART of Education:

An Exhibition of Student Artwork Created in Santa Barbara County Schools

The Santa Barbara County Alliance for Arts Education (SBCAAE) is partnering with the Lynda Fairly Carpinteria Arts Center to display artwork created in our local elementary and junior high schools. This is the second annual exhibition pulled together to highlight and display the amazing creativity and talent that in our schools, our students, and our teachers. The exhibition will be held in March of 2019 with an opening reception (date TBD).

The theme of this year's exhibition is "The HEART of Education." Students and teachers can work together and are encouraged to submit entries that interpret the theme "The HEART of Education" and focus on arts as an essential part of the classroom. Teachers are encouraged to submit multiple artworks that may demonstrate using the arts to teach another subject or a dedicated art lesson taught as part of the school day.

Arrangements will be made to pick up art work at the school's office by a SBCAAE committee member. Please contact Hannah Rubalcava at hannah@sbac.ca.gov to make schedule a pick-up date no later than February 15, 2019.

All artwork must be 2-dimensional visual artwork that can be displayed in the Lynda Fairly Carpinteria Art Center's Gallery. Please use the following guidelines to submit your works of art.
